

PATHS Ltd

Delivering Business Benefits through Successful Projects

Paths Ltd is a local company specialising in evaluating IT solutions and project managing the implementation of these. The company has particularly experience in the implementation of Office systems and electronic document and records management solutions. It also provides administrative services for local organisations.

For further information, please contact Stephen Cronbach,
Managing Director on 07882 498392; Stephen.cronbach@gmail.com